Bright IT is a team of 30 technology and marketing experts in Poland and Austria who create digital marketing solutions that help the Marketing, Sales, Communications and IT organisations of our international clients successfully connect with their customers, partners and associates.

To strengthen our growing international team the following full-time position is open for immediate start:

DEVOPS ENGINEER / SYS ADMIN
IN WROCŁAW, POLAND

On this position you will encounter the following daily tasks:

— Setup and maintain our local (MacBooks, VMs, Fortigate) and cloud infrastructure (AWS, Azure)
— Manage web application environments for our clients (Tomcat, WildFly, Apache HTTP Server, RedHat, Puppet, Varnish)
— Manage our internal and external production systems (Amazon Linux, CentOS, Docker, Nexus, Nginx)
— Administer and work with our SaaS tools (GitHub, JIRA, Travis, GSuite, Slack)
— Work hand in hand with experienced SysAdmins (on our and customer's side)
— Document your work and existing environments (Confluence)

To accomplish these tasks you should:

— Have experience in managing Linux based servers and be familiar with the above mentioned technologies
— Show knowledge of your favourite scripting language (bash, python, ruby, you name it)
— Feel confident with the IT basics every sysadmin should know (did we mention network?)
— Build on IT knowledge broad enough to efficiently make use of your favorite Internet search engine so the issue at hand can be troubleshooted and addressed quickly
— Express your ideas clearly in Polish and English (German will get you a bonus!)

In exchange we offer:

— Competitive salary, employee benefits (LuxMed, Multisport) and a budget for self development
— Highest quality environment and hardware (MacBook, daskeyboard, external display, ergonomic chair)
— Elastic approach to work organisation (we also appreciate work-life balance)
— Mix of experienced and young enthusiasts (to gain a bit from everyone)
— Fridge with a good selection of juices and a Football table with our own app for player statistics!

In case you are a good match and interested in working with us, we look forward to your application by email at devops@bright-it.com.
